

THE CURRICULUM

DEGREES OFFERED

The College awards bachelor's degrees to degree-seeking undergraduates who have fulfilled all degree requirements (<http://collegecatalog.uchicago.edu/thecollege/degree/requirements/>) within their allotted quarters of enrollment (<http://collegecatalog.uchicago.edu/thecollege/gradingandacademicstatus/#quartersofenrollment>). Bachelor's degrees awarded are based on the major(s) selected by the student and may come in two forms: Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) or Bachelor of Science (B.S.). A Bachelor of Arts typically allows for the exploration of a wider range of interests, while a Bachelor of Science ordinarily offers a more intensive program of study in the select subject area. Some programs of study offer only one degree, the B.A. or the B.S., while other programs offer both options and allow students to select the one they wish to pursue. A complete list of the programs of study and whether they are available as a B.S., B.A., or minor can be found below for each collegiate division. Students interested in pursuing more than one program should discuss their plans thoroughly with their academic adviser.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES COLLEGIATE DIVISION

In the Biological Sciences Collegiate Division (BSCD), students from every major study life in all its forms. The student experience focuses on the research processes that inform our knowledge of biological mechanisms that govern living things and the interactions of organisms with each other and with their environment.

The BSCD oversees the following Core (<http://collegecatalog.uchicago.edu/thecollege/thecore/>) requirements and programs of study:

ARTS AND HUMANITIES COLLEGIATE DIVISION

The Arts and Humanities Collegiate Division (AHCD) is the College's home for humanistic inquiry and artistic practice. There are many ways for College students to study the humanities or to make art. In the Humanities and Arts Cores, students learn to read closely, think critically, write and speak effectively, or make and interpret art. Through the Humanities Signature courses students get to sample the best the humanistic disciplines have to offer. They can study one of more than 50 languages or join one of many student-run theater productions. They can intern at the Smart Museum of Art or conduct their own research project in the College Summer Research Institute. And of course, they can pursue one of the many major or minors offered by the Humanities Collegiate Division.

SOCIAL SCIENCES COLLEGIATE DIVISION

The Social Sciences Collegiate Division (SSCD) is home to the undergraduate curriculum in the social sciences. Our programs immerse students in the full range of social scientific inquiry, exploring the conceptual frameworks, theories, and methodologies essential to understanding the economic, political, cultural, and psychological phenomena by which human communities organize themselves. This encounter with foundational concepts is defined by an open and critical exchange of ideas, the practice of careful reading, precise writing, and engaging debate.
